

Section I, Basic Digital Literacy

1. What is an operating system?

Competency Tested: Knowledge of computer software and terminology.

- A. A type of software that controls the computer hardware.
- B. A main computer in a network which provides files to clients.
- C. An application for browsing the internet.
- D. The physical components of a computer, like the hard drive and RAM.

2. Which of the following is NOT a web browser?

Competency Tested: Knowledge of web browsers.

- A. Firefox
- B. Google Drive
- C. Chrome
- D. Safari

3. Which of these is NOT an input device?

Competency Tested: Knowledge of computer hardware and input devices.

- A. Keyboard
- B. Mouse
- C. Monitor
- D. Microphone

4. Phishing is:

Competency Tested: Knowledge of cybersecurity and online threats.

- A. A method of fishing using drones.
- B. An attempt to acquire sensitive information by masquerading as a trustworthy entity in electronic communication.
- C. A technique to speed up your internet connection.
- D. A tool used by graphic designers.

5. Which of the following file extensions typically denotes an image?

Competency Tested: Knowledge of file extensions and file types.

- A. .mp3
- B. .docx
- C. .jpeg
- D. .exe

Section II, Advanced Digital Literacy

6. Which programming language is not object-oriented by design?

Competency Tested: Knowledge of programming languages and their paradigms, specifically object-oriented programming.

- A. Python
- B. Java
- C. C++
- D. C

7. In the context of databases, what does 'SQL' stand for?

Competency Tested: Knowledge of database management and SQL.

- A. Sequential Query Language
- B. Simple Queue Language
- C. Structured Query Language
- D. Systematic Question Language

8. Which cybersecurity attack involves overwhelming a system's resources, making it unavailable to users?

Competency Tested: Knowledge of cybersecurity and different types of cyberattacks.

- A. Phishing
- B. Man-in-the-middle attack
- C. DDoS (Distributed Denial of Service)
- D. Cross-Site Scripting (XSS)

9. In cloud computing, what does 'IaaS' stand for?

Competency Tested: Knowledge of cloud computing and its service models.

- A. Integrated as a Service
- B. Infrastructure as a Service
- C. Interface as a Service
- D. Installation as a Service

10. In the context of UX design and user research, which method involves observing real users as they attempt to complete tasks on a product, often while they verbalize their thoughts, to gain insight into where they encounter problems and experience confusion?

Competency Tested: Knowledge of user experience (UX) design and user research methods, specifically usability testing.

- A. Affinity Diagramming

- B. Card Sorting
- C. Think-Aloud Protocol
- D. SWOT Analysis

Section III, Basic Reading Comprehension

Prompt Passage: Lila and her family went on a vacation to the mountains last summer. They stayed in a cozy cabin surrounded by tall pine trees. Every morning, Lila would go on a walk and listen to the birds chirping. One day, she spotted a family of deer grazing nearby. During the evenings, they would gather around the fireplace and tell stories. Lila's favorite part was roasting marshmallows and making s'mores.

11. Which word best describes the atmosphere of the cabin Lila and her family stayed in?

Competency Tested: Interpreting and inferring the atmosphere of a setting based on the passage.

- A. Sparse
- B. Urban
- C. Cozy
- D. Loud

12. Which activity did Lila NOT engage in during her vacation, based on the passage?

Competency Tested: Identifying specific activities that were not mentioned in the passage.

- A. Telling stories
- B. Listening to birds
- C. Swimming in a lake
- D. Watching deer

13. Which of the following can be inferred about Lila's location during her walks?

Competency Tested: Making inferences about the location based on the information provided in the passage.

- A. It was near a bustling city center.
- B. It was a silent place with no animal life.
- C. It was in a natural setting with wildlife around.
- D. It was close to a desert area.

14. The fact that Lila and her family told stories by the fireplace suggests that:

Competency Tested: Drawing conclusions and making logical inferences based on the information provided in the passage.

- A. There was no electricity in the cabin.
- B. They enjoyed traditional forms of entertainment.
- C. The cabin had no furniture to sit on.
- D. It was winter and they needed warmth.

15. Which statement would be an opinion rather than a fact about the passage?

Competency Tested: Distinguishing between statements of fact and opinion in the context of the passage.

- A. Lila went on a walk every morning.
- B. Roasting marshmallows is the best part of any vacation.
- C. They went to the mountains for their vacation.
- D. Lila saw a family of deer during one of her walks.

Section IV, Advanced Reading Comprehension

Prompt Passage: In the city of Verdelight, towers scraped the skies and bridges arched over canals like intertwining hands. Yet, amid the technological marvels, an old, ivy-covered bookshop named "Whispered Tales" stood unfazed. The proprietor, Miss Elara, was as mysterious as the books she kept, with eyes that seemed to glean stories from souls. Many believed she could discern one's destiny by merely glancing at them. One evening, a disheveled young man named Corwin entered, seeking refuge from the pouring rain. But instead of simply sheltering him, Miss Elara handed Corwin a book titled "Uncharted Journeys." As he opened it, he found pages of his life recounted in haunting detail, yet half the book remained blank. "Fill it," Miss Elara whispered, hinting at adventures and choices yet to come.

16. The description of bridges in Verdelight as "intertwining hands" suggests:

Competency Tested: Interpreting figurative language and metaphors in a descriptive passage.

- A. The city is technologically advanced in its bridge-building techniques.
- B. There's a sense of connection and unity in the city's design.
- C. The bridges are fragile and can easily be broken.
- D. Verdelight has many canals that often intersect.

17. What characteristic is most emphasized about Miss Elara in the passage?

Competency Tested: Identifying and summarizing the central characteristics of a character based on the passage.

- A. Her technologically advanced methods.
- B. Her ability to predict weather patterns.
- C. Her mysterious insight into people's destinies.
- D. Her disapproval of the city's technological advances.

18. Why did Corwin initially enter "Whispered Tales"?

Competency Tested: Determining the reason for a character's actions based on the information in the passage.

- A. To buy a book for his studies.
- B. To inquire about employment opportunities.
- C. To seek protection from the rain.
- D. To confront Miss Elara about a rumor.

19. What significant discovery does Corwin make upon opening "Uncharted Journeys"?

Competency Tested: Understanding the content within the context of the passage.

- A. His past and present detailed, with an uncertain future.
- B. A comprehensive history of Verdelight.
- C. Miss Elara's autobiography.
- D. Fantastical tales of otherworldly adventures.

20. Miss Elara's advice to "Fill it" implies:

Competency Tested: Drawing conclusions and making inferences about the meaning of a character's advice within the passage's context.

- A. Corwin should become an author.
- B. She wants him to document the city's progress.
- C. The book is incomplete and requires more stories.
- D. He has the agency to shape his own destiny.

Section V, Basic Writing Skills

21. Choose the sentence that sounds most natural.

Competency Tested: Sentence structure and word order.

- A. At the store I am going tomorrow.
- B. I am going to the store tomorrow.
- C. To the store tomorrow I am going.
- D. Tomorrow at the store I will be.

22. Which sentence seems off?

Competency Tested: Identifying grammatically incorrect or awkward sentences.

- A. I've never seen such a beautiful sunset.
- B. He doesn't hardly ever show up on time.
- C. The flowers bloom in spring
- D. They're going on vacation next month.

23. Choose the sentence that feels most complete.

Competency Tested: Recognizing complete and coherent sentences.

- A. Although she studied hard.
- B. Because he ran.
- C. She dances gracefully.
- D. While the rain poured.

24. Which option sounds most fluid?

Competency Tested: Evaluating sentence fluency and correct verb tenses.

- A. If I would have known about the party, I would have come.
- B. Had I known about the party, I would have come.
- C. If I would have known about the party, I will come.
- D. Knowing I about the party, I would have come.

25. Select the sentence that feels most coherent.

Competency Tested: Identifying coherent and logically structured sentences.

- A. Eating fruits daily, my skin improved.
- B. My skin improved eating fruits daily.
- C. Eating fruits, the car broke down.
- D. Daily eating fruits, the benefits are numerous.

26. In Practice: Recall a childhood toy that was special to you. In a few sentences, describe the toy and why it was meaningful.

Competency Tested: Putting knowledge into practice and the ability to follow directions.

- +1 for proper length
- +1 for grammar/punctuation
- +1 for spelling
- +1 for describing the toy
- +1 for explaining why it was meaningful

Section VI, Advanced Writing Skills

27. Choose the sentence that best completes the thought without redundancy.

Competency Tested: Identifying and selecting sentences that express a complete thought without redundancy and using appropriate conjunctions.

- A. Despite the fact that it was raining, she decided to take a walk.
- B. Although it was raining, she decided to take a walk.
- C. Even though it was raining, but she decided to take a walk.
- D. Being that it was raining, yet she decided to take a walk.

28. Select the sentence that flows most naturally.

Competency Tested: Recognizing and selecting sentences with natural word order and phrasing, specifically in the context of question formation.

- A. Whom did you see at the store?
- B. Who did you see at the store?
- C. Who you saw at the store?
- D. At the store whom did you see?

29. Identify the sentence with the most appropriate word choice.

Competency Tested: Evaluating word choice and selecting the sentence with the most suitable and precise language.

- A. The aroma of the soup is very appetizingly.
- B. The soup smells appetizingly.
- C. The soup has an appetizing aroma.
- D. The aroma of the soup feels appetizing.

30. Select the sentence that presents its ideas most coherently.

Competency Tested: Assessing the coherence and logical structure of sentences, specifically with regard to sentence placement and conjunctions.

- A. Not only did she finish her work but also organized the event.
- B. She not only finished her work but also organized the event.
- C. Not only she finished her work but also she organized the event.
- D. She finished her work not only but also organized the event.

31. Choose the sentence that fits best in formal writing.

Competency Tested: Recognizing and using correct pronoun forms in formal writing.

- A. It's them who we were talking about earlier.
- B. It's they who we were talking about earlier.
- C. It's they whom we were talking about earlier.

D. Them are whom we were talking earlier about.

32. In Practice: Imagine a world where a single spoken word determines one's fate for the upcoming year. Consider your choice carefully. In a single paragraph, describe the word you'd speak and justify its implications for your future in a concise, compelling manner.

Competency Tested: Putting knowledge into practice and the ability to follow directions.

+1 for proper length

+1 for grammar/punctuation

+1 for spelling

+1 for describing the word

+1 for justifying the implications

Section VII, Personal Wellbeing and Commitment

33. "I actively prioritize self-care and mental wellbeing."

Competency Tested: personal wellness.

- A. Strongly disagree
- B. Disagree
- C. Neutral
- D. Agree
- E. Strongly Agree

34. "I am comfortable seeking help or support when facing challenges."

Competency Tested: Willingness to admit needed support.

- A. Strongly disagree
- B. Disagree
- C. Neutral
- D. Agree
- E. Strongly agree

35. "I engage in regular activities that help manage stress."

Competency Tested: Stress management skills.

- A. Strongly disagree
- B. Disagree
- C. Neutral
- D. Agree
- E. Strongly agree

36. "I am open to participating in group discussions or activities related to mental health and personal growth."

Competency Tested: Openness and commitment to growth.

- A. Strongly disagree
- B. Disagree
- C. Neutral
- D. Agree
- E. Strongly Agree

37. "I am comfortable with establishing and respecting shared living rules and boundaries."

Competency Tested: Boundary-setting and living-space compatibility.

- A. Strongly disagree
- B. Disagree
- C. Neutral
- D. Agree
- E. Strongly Agree

38. Why are you interested in the R4L program?

Competency Tested: Genuine interest in the program.

+1 for responding appropriately

39. The program is a year-long commitment. In programming is Monday through Friday from 9 AM to 5 PM. In Los Angeles, programming is Monday through Friday from 4 PM to 8 PM. Attendance is mandatory in both locations.

Do you have any other commitments that might hinder your willingness to stay the course and complete the program? Please explain.

Competency Tested: Ability to commit to program schedule and demands.

+1 for responding appropriately

40. Describe a scenario in which you had conflicting commitments or responsibilities. How did you handle it? How do you usually handle conflicting commitments?

Competency Tested: Ability and willingness to prioritize the program.

+1 for responding appropriately

41. How would you describe your approach to sharing household responsibilities and chores? Do you use any specific skills or tools to address the responsibilities of a shared living space? Do you find that your approach is usually successful?

Competency Tested: Ability and willingness to get along with others in a shared living space.

+1 for responding appropriately

42. Describe an experience where you successfully resolved a conflict with a roommate or colleague. How did you deal with the issue? How do you usually handle personal or professional conflicts?

Competency Tested: Conflict management/resolution and professionalism.

+1 for responding appropriately