

Tips For Success in

- Pay Attention
Sometimes it can be hard to focus, we get it. We cover a huge amount of content in . The more attention you give to facilitators and coaches, the more you will learn. When you miss things, it can be easy to fall behind.
- Fully Participate in EACH
Yes, is absolutely just as valuable to your future career path as . We begin with mindset because it is the foundation of everything else you will learn. If you don't think you can get anything out of "mindset development," you may need it the most.
- Stay ahead of the work
There will be homework, and there will be a good amount of it. Keep up with the schedule, and stay ahead of it to the best of your ability. If you fall behind too far, you may face a stipend reduction, pass restriction, or even in extreme cases, removal from the program.
- Ask for help and support
 is a program with HIGH SUPPORT and HIGH EXPECTATIONS. We will expect a great deal from you, and in return, we will offer any and all support we have at our disposal. If you want or need support in order to succeed in this program, you must be willing to make requests from the coaching team. No one knows what you need better than you.
- Be open to the process
Maybe you've participated in groups like or maybe you haven't. Either way, we ask you to be open to the process and the possibility of learning something new about yourself and the way you show up in the world. Even if you have done a lot of self-help in the past, will give you the opportunity to apply these concepts to your professional development.
- Be kind and compassionate
Attitude is everything, and the more kind and compassionate you are with others, the more kind and compassionate they will be with you. If you are willing to offer support to other members of your cohort, please do so.
- Work as a team
Your cohort is a team, you are all working to learn and grow together. Support each other, care for each other, and hold each other accountable. If you want to go fast, go alone. But if you want to go far, go with others.
- Communicate
There will be many ways to communicate with staff and other fellows that will be necessary for your completion of this program. We will guide you through the appropriate methods of communication. Use them.
- FULL PARTICIPATION
Maximum Value = Full Participation. If you don't participate fully, you will not get the full benefits of the program.

Policies and Expectations

Workbook Exercises

Your Workbook Exercises will be due once a week, by 11:59 PM each Sunday! You will submit these Workbook Exercises on Google Classroom.

Digital Literacy

We will use two digital literacy learning platforms: Applied Digital Skills (ADS) by Google, and Northstar Digital Literacy Assessments. These modules are partially “self-paced,” meaning you can complete them at your own pace, so long as you stay aligned with expectations. You will see, on the schedule in this syllabus and on Google Classroom, which modules should be done each week to complete the digital literacy component of Pillar I. You can not graduate to without finishing digital literacy. It may be possible to complete digital literacy in class, but you will likely need to complete some of it on your own time as homework. You will be asked to share screenshots of your completed Northstar Assessments to Google Classroom. THIS IS PART OF YOUR GRADE and is REQUIRED.

Financial Wellness with

We will have weekly quizzes and a final exam, based on what we learn from during Financial Wellness hours. All Financial Wellness work can and should be done during class hours.

Full Participation and Emotional Maturity

During , we may address topics that are emotionally charged for you or others in your cohort. We may touch on things that tempt us to resist the process. We may do exercises that challenge our paradigms (worldviews), bump up against our ideas about ourselves and the world, and tempt us to react instead of thoughtfully responding. We invite you to consider your purpose here in those moments. This is a career development program, and you are here to build a future filled with opportunity. The work we will do in these next three months is not optional. You may choose, at your own discretion, to share or not share certain things, but you are required to participate fully. You will be scored on your participation and graded on your effort.

Respect is Required

is an inclusive program. The people next to you belong to many different races, ethnicities, genders, and sexual orientations. We embrace differences at . Any disrespectful or threatening behavior will be taken seriously and can result in stipend reduction, pass restriction, and/or removal from the program. Serious infractions will result in immediate removal from the program without steps for remediation.

Attendance

Just like at a job, we expect you to be in class, on time, every weekday. Tardiness will be noted and will count against your participation score for the day. Continued tardiness and absences can result in stipend reduction, pass restriction, and, in extreme cases, removal from the program.

Excused Absences

Excused absences are allowed for emergencies and reasonable, pre-approved requests only. We may or may not allow excused absences for important events, but reasonable advance notice must be given and the request must be approved. Approval is not guaranteed.

Unexcused Absences

If you do not attend class, and you do not have permission to be excused, you will receive an unexcused absence. You are only allowed six unexcused absences during . If you exceed that number of unexcused absences, you will face stipend reduction, pass restriction, and in extreme cases, removal from the program.

Wellness Days

During , you are allotted THREE (3) “wellness days.” You may use these days to be excused from class, without question, if you are in need of a day for wellness. You MUST inform a coach about your absence before class starts on the day you will be taking a Wellness Day. You have a very limited number of wellness days. Use them wisely.

Holidays

observes the following 14 holidays each year: New Year's Day, Martin Luther King Jr. Day, Presidents Day, Memorial Day, Juneteenth, 4th of July, Labor Day, Indigenous Peoples' Day, Veterans Day, Thanksgiving Day, Day after Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, and New Year's Eve Day. When a holiday falls on a Saturday, it will be observed the preceding Friday. When a holiday falls on a Sunday, it will be observed the following Monday.
