

EMAIL CHEAT SHEET

✨ FOLLOWING UP

Subject: Following Up: [Specific Request]
Needed by [Date]

Hi [Name],
Following up on [request].
I need this by [specific deadline] to [reason].

If you're stuck or need help, let me know.

Subject: Re: [Request] – Timeline Question

I'd love to help—this looks important.
Right now I'm working on [X] and [Y], so [original timeline] isn't feasible without compromising quality.

Options:

1. [Alternative timeline]
2. [Trade-off option]
- 3.

Let me know what works best.

SAYING NO ✨

Subject: Request: [What You Need]
([Cost if relevant]) ✨

I'd like to request [thing].

Why: [Business case in 1-2 sentences]

Value: [ROI or impact]

Happy to discuss or provide more info.

THE REQUEST

OWNING UP ✨

Subject: [Deliverable] Submitted –
Apologies for Delay

I missed [deadline]—my apologies.

[Deliverable] is attached/complete now.

If there's anything I can do to help you catch up, let me know.

I've [prevention step] to avoid this going forward.

QUICK REMINDERS

💡 "Clarity is kindness." ✨

💡 "One request beats three apologies."

💡 "When in doubt, be direct—kindly."

PRE-SEND CHECKLIST

- ✓ Purpose clear in first sentence?
- ✓ Deadlines/key info bolded and visible?
- ✓ Paragraphs short (2-3 sentences max)?
- ✓ Tone matches the relationship?
- ✓ Action step clearly stated?
- ✓ Proofread for clarity?

